

Typical installation of single gas phase ammonia detector in safety relief vent main

Polycarbonate enclosures are upto 40% lighter than their fiberglass equivalents and offer excellent UV and environmental anti rain stain, Moreover, polycarbonate is stable and compared to other materials as it maintain its tensile strength across a ~~narrow~~ broad temperature range of  $-40^{\circ}\text{F}$  to  $265^{\circ}\text{F}$ .